

Identify the funds available in your account

Search for each of the funds available in your account at www.morningstar.com. List the name, category, Morningstar star rating, expense ratio, and historical rank in category. Compare each fund in each category to all other funds in the same category, and find the best fund for each category.

[illegible]